Belmont United Methodist Church News

August 19, 2018

We believe every person is of sacred worth and created in God's image. We commit to Jesus' example of inclusive love, care, and intentional hospitality with persons of every race, ethnicity, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, marital status, faith story, physical or mental ability, economic status, or political perspective. We respect our diversity of opinion and expressions of faith. Therefore, as God loves us, so let us love and serve in the name of Christ.

Thanks, Belmont!

Many thanks to the children, young people, parents, teachers, members of the Foundation Class and the UMW, and other Belmonsters who donated supplies and funds and worked last Sunday morning to assemble school kits for UMCOR. Those kits will be sent to depressed areas and natural disasters areas so that children in those places can continue to learn. Your generous gifts of supplies, money, and time allowed us to meet our goal of more than 200 school kits.

Administrative Board will meet next Sunday

The next Administrative Board meeting will take place next Sunday, August 26, in Parker Hall immediately following the 10:30 a.m. worship service.

Meal reservations are required no later than this Wednesday, August 22 and may be made online on the Administrative Board

Belmont UMC welcomes new Intern to Young People

We are excited to welcome Claire Ward as our Intern to Young People (children and youth) for the 2018-2019 school year. Claire is entering her junior year at Belmont University. She is pursuing a B.M. degree with double majors in Music Education and Spanish. Claire is an active member of the Belmont Wesley Foundation and the Alpha Gamma Delta Sorority. Originally from Memphis, Tennessee, she attended Bartlett United Methodist Church where she participated in UMYF, youth choir, and missions ministry. Outside of school, she enjoys traveling and recently completed a summer study program in Argentina with plans to travel to Ghana and Cuba in 2019.

Children's choirs resume this week!

Children's choirs will begin at 6:15 p.m. this Wednesday, August 22, on the Faith Finders hall. Children's Chimes (5th-

6th graders) will begin at 5:40 p.m. in the bell room that date also. All are welcome! For a list
