Sunday school classes collecting the offering for December: Harbison Jessie Rustin Fellowship, Delta/Kairos, Graham-Inquirers

Celebrate Christmas with brunch, entertainment, and gifts for kids!

On Saturday, December 1, join other women and older girls at the UMW Christmas Brunch at 9:30 a.m. in Parker Hall. It's potluck and all are welcome. Come and enjoy good food and fellowship. Deron Johnson, choir member and soloist, will lead us in Christmas music.

We will be collecting toys for girls or boys, ages 10-12, to be given to Bethlehem Center Toy Store. After qualifying, parents in need can choose three items per child. For a list of requested items, go to belmontuc.org/umw-christmas-brunch. A collection box will be placed in the Iris Room entrance area for items donated by people unable to attend the brunch. All donations need to be in by December 7 in order to be presented at a Children's Christmas party at Bethlehem Center.

Belmont United Methodist Church News

November 25, 2018

We believe every person is of sacred worth and created in God's image. We commit to Jesus' example of inclusive love, care, and intentional hospitality with persons of every race, ethnicity, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, marital status, faith story, physical or mental ability, economic status, or political perspective. We respect our diversity of opinion and expressions of faith. Therefore, as God loves us, so let us love and serve in the name of Christ.

December 2 Communion offering

Your Communion offering next Sunday will help us fulfill our commitment to pay our fair share of conference askings. By combining our money with that of other United Methodist churches each year, we are able to help support over 900 missionaries around the world, provide meals for over 3 million people each year, and help children, youth, and adults by giving them opportunities to be self-sufficient.

Christmas Miracle Offering

This year, you are invited to help make miracles happen through the "Give Ye Them To Eat" (GYTTE) ministry in South Central Mexico. Your gifts to the Christmas Miracle Offering will enable GYTTE will help people living in poverty be healthier, utilize resources in their midst, and care for God's creation.
