Reception for Jefferson Furtado today

Jefferson Furtado has touched many lives in his three years at Belmont UMC. All of the Furtados – Jefferson, Linda, Sueli, Cintia, and Emma – have blessed us with their prayers, presence, gifts, service, and their witness. Please join us in celebrating Jefferson and his family in the Iris Room today immediately following the 10:30 a.m. worship service.

Jefferson has been appointed pastor of Connell United Methodist Church in Goodlettsville. We are confident that the folks at Connell will be as blessed by his ministry as we have been!

"All are made in God's image" sermon series

The next two Sundays, June 23 and 30, join us at 8:15 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. for two sermons from Galatians on identity, freedom, and spiritual responsibility.

Come explore how "Christ's love makes us all one" (Galatians 3-5) and sets us free to live lives of grace, goodness, and love.

Join us at Pride next weekend!

Nashville Pride is June 22-23, and Belmont UMC will be there along with other local United Methodist churches. This year, Belmont's booth (number 51) will be adjacent to West End and East End UMC's booths. We hope to have a large presence led by Belmonterers and members from Edgehill, East End, Glendale, and West End. Booth attendants are needed for two-hour time slots each day.
