October Communion offering

Our October Communion offering, which we will be collecting all month, will support the Nashville International Center for Empowerment (NICE). NICE works to ensure refugees and immigrants achieve their full potential now and for generations to come. To give to this worthy cause, please give online at <https://onrealm.org/BelmontUMC/give/NICE>, text BELMONT NICE to 73256, or mail a check to the church with "NICE" in the memo line. Go to belmontumc.org/october-communion-offering to learn more.

Room in the Inn resumes November 5

Room in the Inn (RITI) will resume at Belmont UMC on Friday, November 5. We will welcome 12 homeless guests on Friday nights during the colder months, providing a warm and safe place to rest. There will be some changes in our process. We will start with four nights this year: November 5, 19, December 3 and 17. There are many ways to serve, either being present at the church with guests or behind the scenes. We need van drivers,

ALL are welcome here.

We believe every person is of sacred worth and created in God's image. We commit to Jesus' example of inclusive love, care, and intentional hospitality with persons of every race, ethnicity, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, marital status, faith story, physical or mental ability, economic status, or political perspective. We respect our diversity of opinion and expressions of faith. Therefore, as God loves us, so let us love and serve in the name of Christ.

2022 Stewardship Campaign

God is upholding and leading Belmont UMC in new ways. Some of the new things God has done through our church during this pandemic season include: columbarium construction, replacement of the boiler that serves the education wing, building signage was updated and redesigned by Ethan Bagwell, Tate Keuler relocated the library and updated its database system, and so much more!

We hope you will join us in God's work in 2022 and ask that you prayerfully consider your financial commitment to Belmont UMC in the coming year. Let's give generously and do our part to help bring about God's kin-dom of love, justice, hope, and welcome on earth as in heaven.

You can pledge online through Realm, make your pledge over the phone or via email by con-

All Saints

As early as the 4th century, days were set aside to commemorate and remember all of the saints. On Sunday, November 7, during the 8:00am and 10:30am worship services, we will remember and grieve the loved ones we have lost this year. Beginning Sunday, October 31, we invite you to tie bells onto the railings outside the sanctuary (on the steps facing Acklen Avenue). The bells remind us of lives well lived and lives that were too short. They are a visible sign of our lament and our hope. May our memories of this great cloud of witnesses be a blessing and a light on our path as we continue to live for justice, compassion, and love.
