Go to belmontumc.org/charge-conference to make your reservation.

Build a bench, share the joy this Wednesday!

Wednesday, June 10, 5:00pm in the parking lot

Join us this Wednesday, June 10, at 5:00pm in the parking lot for an evening of building and painting as we create benches that will be placed around town, offering rest and welcome at bus stops and in parks.

Come lend a hand and help spread a little joy!

The Promise of America begins next Sunday

Sundays, June 14, 21, and 28, 9:00am in room 225.

On Sunday mornings, June 14, 21, and 28, the Simplicity Class will host Rev. John Collett for a series titled The Promise of America. The class meets in room 225 at 9:00am and will offer both Zoom access and recordings for a wider audience.

Rev. Collett will explore the ideals that gave birth to America, as expressed in the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776. As we approach the 250th anniversary of the Declaration, this series offers an opportunity to reflect on those founding ideals - how they have endured, how they are being challenged, and how we might recommit ourselves to them. Learn more at belmontumc.org/promise-of-America.

Belmonters for Inclusion to meet on June 14

Sunday, June 14, 11:30am in room 124

Belmonters for Inclusion will meet next Sunday, June 14, at 11:30am in room 124 to finalize plans for Pride. Whether you've been involved before or are simply curious about how you can support this meaningful ministry, we'd love to have your voice at the table. If you have signed up to volunteer at Pride, you can pick up your t-shirt at the meeting. Please contact Trudy Holden (trudytaylorholden@gmail.com) with any questions.

June mini retreat

Saturday, June 20, 10:00am at Belmont UMC

The theme for our June mini-retreat is Knowing You Belong: Our Place at the Heart of the Trinity. Join us on Saturday, June 20, from 10:00am–12:00pm at Belmont UMC. Through prayer, scripture, and other contemplative practices. To sign up, contact Heather Harriss (heather@belmontumc.org). Childcare is available with a reservation made by June 5. Learn more at belmontumc.org/mini-retreat.

Next Sunday, June 14, we'll explore Psalm 111 and the theme Let Us Praise God In All That We Do.

Join us at 9:15am in Parker Hall.

Mary Walker receives Charles Strobel Legacy Award

Belmonter Mary Walker has dedicated her life to helping children and families across Middle Tennessee thrive. Through her leadership and compassion, she has strengthened two vital community organizations—Renewal House and Big Brothers Big Sisters of Middle Tennessee. In recognition of her extraordinary commitment to children and families, Mary was recently honored with the distinguished Charles Strobel Legacy Award.

Mary's lifelong service reflects the same integrity, compassion, and dedication to community that defined Charles Strobel. Congratulations, Mary! Learn more at belmontumc.org/mary-walker.

Volunteer readers needed for Project Transformation

Monday, June 22 - Thursday, June 25, 9:15am at Antioch UMC

Belmont UMC is participating in Project Transformation (PT) this summer by furnishing volunteer readers for children participating in the program at Antioch United Methodist Church. Belmont UMC has been assigned June 22-25 as days to read to children in the PT program.

Volunteers are needed from 9:15am-12:15pm each day, Monday, June 22 – Thursday, June 25, at Antioch UMC (41 Tusculum Road, Antioch, 37013). To volunteer, please contact Celia Joyner (celiajoyner@aol.com) or Susan Kirby (susan.b.kirby@gmail.com).

Summer of Justice

At Belmont United Methodist Church, we believe faith calls us beyond the walls of the church and into the work of justice, compassion, and community transformation. This summer, we invite you to take part in our Summer of Justice initiative - a season of outreach, advocacy, learning, and hands-on service opportunities designed to help us live out Christ's call to love our neighbors in meaningful ways.

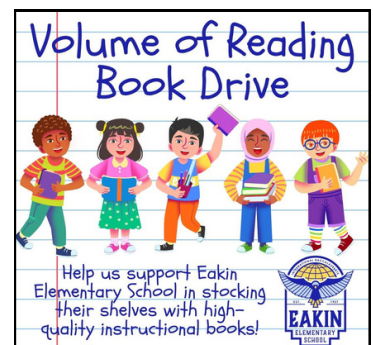

A webpage has been created with opportunities for all ages and interests to get involved, and it will be updated frequently throughout the summer. Whether you can give one afternoon or an entire season, your presence and participation matter. Together, we can build a more just, compassionate, and hopeful community - one act of love at a time.

Summer of Justice yard signs will also be available for $10. Pre-order yours or learn more about available opportunities at belmontumc.org/summer-of-justice.

Book drive for Eakin Elementary School

This summer, we are collecting books for Eakin Elementary School's "Volume of Reading" initiative. A collection bin will be available in the foyer.

Eakin Elementary School is grateful for the generosity and support of Belmont United Methodist Church through this special book drive. Donations will help provide wit and wisdom "Volume of Reading" books that support students' individual reading levels, build vocabulary and knowledge, and encourage a lifelong love of reading. Your support helps place meaningful, high-quality books into the hands of students and makes a lasting impact on their learning. For a list of requested titles, go to belmontumc.org/book-drive. Let's help stock Eakin's shelves with high-quality instructional books!

We are a community of Christ-followers growing in love of God and neighbor.

We believe every person is of sacred worth and created in God's image. We commit to Jesus' example of inclusive love, care, and intentional hospitality with persons of every race, ethnicity, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, marital status, faith story, physical or mental ability, economic status, or political perspective. We respect our diversity of opinion and expressions of faith. Therefore, as God loves us, so let us love and serve in the name of Christ.
